

This summer, the Chicago ACE Fellowship and St. Hilary School are offering an exciting summer opportunity for students entering grades 1-8:

Summer City Writers!

Monday - Friday
June 21st - July 2nd, July 5th - July 9th
8- 11 a.m. at St. Hilary School

The three-week Summer City Writers camp will be structured as a “Writer’s Workshop.” Whether your student wants to refine and reinforce writing skills to prepare for the next grade or enrich writing skills beyond grade level expectation, Summer City Writers helps each student achieve his or her goals. Our summer camp teachers are highly qualified and dedicated to providing a fulfilling and fun experience for all students!

The camp is structured around the following weekly themes:

Week 1: Poetry

Week 2: Fiction/Creative Writing

Week 3: Nonfiction

The cost of the camp is $150, which includes two field trips for some awesome experiential learning! To enroll in Summer City Writers, please return the completed sign-up form below with a down payment check of $50, made out to St. Hilary School. If you have any questions, please feel free to email Annie Brusky at anne.brusky@gmail.com. Return the form to the office by May 20th. Spaces are limited.

Summer City Writers will build a personal writing portfolio by adding new writings each day that apply what they have learned to the weekly theme.

Each student will choose two pieces of writing to take through all the steps of the writing process to publication.

At the end of the camp, each student will publish one piece in an official Summer School Magazine.

The camp will conclude with an exciting “Coffee House Reading,” open to family and the local community, to showcase the students’ hard work!
